

April 24th

We know parenting is one tough job! Be sure to make time to do something YOU enjoy. A happy you will lead to happier children at home. This week try to “Catch” your children being good. Praise them often. Simple everyday actions go a long way to help create great childhoods. Contact the Churchill Community Coalition to learn valuable resources and skills to prevent abuse and effective parenting skills 775-423-7433 or www.churchillcoalition.com

April 28th

Thanks for supporting your local Pinwheels for Prevention campaign this year. Many local businesses have recognized child abuse prevention month by displaying pinwheels and posters. We urge you to prevent abuse every day and continue to learn about resources and strategies to build a strong and healthy family.

PICTURES of events during the month

More information about this campaign can be found HERE at: preventchildabusenevada.org or contact the Churchill Community Coalition to learn valuable resources and skills to prevent abuse and practice effective parenting skills at 775-423-7433 or www.churchillcoalition.com

